

Having held an amateur radio license since 1959...advanced class since 1979 (plus I held a first class commercial license til you converted it into a lifetime general one)...I am in favor of RM-10620. I do realize that administering this could be a problem.